

The Italian Angevins: Naples and Beyond

<italianangevins2013.wordpress.com>

The Italian Angevins: Naples and Beyond is a one-day, interdisciplinary conference, focusing on the culture, history, and politics of the Angevin Regno, from 1266 to 1422.

Complementing the 2013 Boccaccio Septcentenary, and immediately preceding this year's Medieval Francophone Literary Culture Outside France conference, we anticipate that this event will stimulate much lively discussion among scholars of diverse disciplinary interests.

The keynote address will be given by Marilyn Desmond (Cambridge University)

Confirmed Speakers

Cristina Rios (Leeds)
Fabio Zinelli (EPHE, Paris)
Marilynn Desmond (Cambridge)
Laura Morreale (Fordham)
Jean Dunbabin (formerly Oxford)
Ella Cullen (UCL)
Charmaine Lee (Salerno)
Catherine Leglu (Reading)

Attendance is free of charge but please register before 29 May 2013
<e.cullen.11@ucl.ac.uk>

University College London
Foster Court, 3rd Floor Common Room