

The Italian Angevins: Naples and Beyond

- 09.45 – 10.15 Registration
- 10.15 – 10.30 Welcome and Introduction
- 10.30 – 11.45 Session 1: Literary Cultures
- Cristina Rios (Leeds)
Angevin Naples and Boccaccio's Filocolo (1336-39)
- TBC
- 11.45 – 12.15 Tea & coffee
- 12.15 – 13.15 Session 2: Plenary Address
- Marilynn Desmond (Cambridge)
Translatio studii and the Performance of Kingship in Angevin Naples
- 13.15 – 14.00 Sandwich Lunch
- 14.00 – 15.45 Session 3: Political, Cultural and Administrative Networks
- Laura Morreale (Fordham)
Some Advice on Retaking the Holy Land, en François, from Charles II of Anjou
- Jean Dunbabin (formerly Oxford)
Cultural networks in the early years of Angevin Italy
- Ella Cullen (UCL)
Multilingualism in the Angevin Archive
- 15.45 – 16.15 Tea & coffee
- 16.15 – 17.30 Session 4: Historiography
- Charmaine Lee (Salerno)
Writing History in Angevin Naples
- Catherine Leglu (Reading)
Writing and Depicting the Place of the Italian Angevins in Three Illustrated World Chronicles from Naples and Provence
- 17.30 – 17.45 Closing Remarks
- 17.45 – 18.30 Wine reception
- 18.30 Leave for restaurant (dinner to be held jointly with the MFLCOF conference)