

The Faculty of Arts, the History Department and the Centre for Urban History of the University of Antwerp (in collaboration with the Department of Biology, Evolutionary Biology Group) are happy to invite you to the

Public Lecture
“Abandonment and Unity: Reactions to Black Death and Plague, 1347 to c.1500”
by Professor Samuel Cohn (Glasgow University)

Thursday 23 April 2015 (18:00-19:30)

University of Antwerp, Stadscampus, R 012 (entrance: Rodestraat)

You are also warmly invited to the classes by Samuel Cohn in the course “The black Death in Europe and the Middle East” by prof. Malika Dekkiche and Peter Stabel (master in history)

Tuesday 21 April (10:30-12:30): ‘Patterns of Plague, from the Black Death to the ‘Third Pandemic’ (Stadscampus, D013: entrance Grote Kauwenberg)

Friday 24 April (10:30-12:30): ‘The Black Death: the Flagellants and the Burning of Jews’
(Stadscampus, A107: entrance Prinsstraat 13)

Participation is free for all, but you are kindly requested to register (tineke.vandewalle@uantwerpen.be)